WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secret service heads were uncommunicative about the prospects in the nationwide hunt for the perpetrators of the series of bomb outrages Monday night. William J. Flynn, appointed last Friday formally as head of the investigation force based in Washington in the operations of Justice, was continuing in those operations. It was admitted that material had been gathered which had not been held though nothing could be disclosed.

A coroner's jury, assembled today to find a verdict as to the death of the bomb thrower killed by the explosion of his own bomb at the office of Attorney General Palmer, adjourned without attempting to complete a verdict. Officials said there was nothing to decide, in view of the circumstances, and that the jury would be called together again if more facts became available.

Washington police were still working in conjunction with New York and Philadelphia authorities and with special departments of justice and secret agents, but no arrests were made.

President Wilson, in a cablegram to Mr. Palmer today, said:

"My heartfelt congratulations on your escape. I am deeply thankful that the miscreants failed in all their attempts."

AUSTRIAN CABINET CONSIDERS TERMS.

VIENNA, Tuesday, June 3.—The Austrian cabinet met today to consider the peace terms which were presented to it yesterday night. No new steps were made during the day. Several suspects arrested in connection with the case were turned over to the department of justice. A number of the prisoners have been granted for deportation according to police. John Johnson, president of the W. W. Organization here, was among those turned over to the federal authorities.

Evidence that anarchists responsible for the explosions were operating among others from Russian radicals' headquarters at 122 East 12th street, New York, was in the hands of the police here today, they said.

PITTSBURGH THINKS
IT HAS EVIDENCE.

PIATTI, June 3.—A City detective and members of the departmental commission continued their investigations tonight into the two explosions at the residences of Federal Judge W. H. Thompson and W. W. Organization, immigration minister. Wednesday night. No new steps were made during the day. Several suspects arrested in connection with the case were turned over to the department of justice. A number of the prisoners have been granted for deportation according to police. John Johnson, president of the W. W. Organization here, was among those turned over to the federal authorities.

Evidence that anarchists responsible for the explosions were operating among others from Russian radicals' headquarters at 122 East 12th street, New York, was in the hands of the police here today, they said.

According to an announcement made by Capt. Supt. R. J. Alderman of the bureau of police, John Johnson, president of the W. W. Organization, who was arrested yesterday after a fight with detectives in a downtown office building, came to Pittsburgh from New York two weeks ago at the instance of "No. 600," William Haywood, president of the National I. W. W., according to Mr. Alderman, bears the same name.

Johnson, who the police say, was born in the genius of the bomb plot of this, was held in jail today with a score of other anarchist revolutionaries arrested yesterday and last night. He was refused bail.

In a partial confession made to the police late yesterday, Johnson said he had named a Cleveland man as the maker of the bombs exploded here. This man, whose name was not given, was also said to have operated under orders of the Russian headquarters in New York. He is believed to have gone to Chicago after the explosions here. A search for him was being made in that city.

NEW YORK HAS NO EVIDENCE.

NEW YORK, June 4.—New York police have no evidence to support the theory of Pittsburgh detectives that the anarchists responsible for Wednesday night's explosion acted independently from the Russian and German headquarters at 122 East 12th street, this city, according to police heads made available.

It was said that the house in whose vicinity the explosion took place, the people whom it has been under investigation, have been under investigation since last night. It was said and 160 persons were arrested. Some of those arrested were subsequently released, but the police heads said that the house was being used as the headquarters of the terrorists.

The troopers' hardest fighting was last September at St. Etienne, which

Idaho Leader Says He Will

He Can Secure One.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The senate fight over the treaty with Germany branched out into new channels today with the introduction of a resolution by Senator Hitchcock, ranking Democrat of the foreign relations committee, proposing that the committee investigate statements by Chairman Lodge and Senator Borah, republican committee members that copies of the unpublished treaty are in the hands of certain interests in New York.

Senators Lodge and Borah promptly announced their approval of such an investigation, which, under the resolution, would seek "the names of the persons, corporations or interests which have secured copies of said treaty, and from whom they were secured, and to what methods."

The first prediction was that the measure would be adopted virtually without opposition and that an exhaustive inquiry, possibly involving testimony by members of the Paris peace delegation would result.

The situation was at high tension during the day. With the plant again shut down at the request of city officials, Mayor Schreiber frankly admitted that the situation was beyond his control despite the large number of returned soldiers and citizen police who have been sworn in. No word has come from Columbus in the sending of troops here, in line with the mayor's appeal to Governor Cox to immediately follow the rioting.

Crowds again gathered at the plant this morning but found a signs of activity of the shutdown. A number of workers who sought to enter the plant were forced by former employees but there was no report of further violence. In the section of the city near the plant and populated largely by former veterans, there was no sign of activity.
